In their opinion, there are no restrictions upon the surplus of the Company by reason of the excess of the preferred value of such shares. ARTHUR ANDERSEN & Co.
67 WALL STREET, NEW YORK

To the Board of Directors.

Hershey Chocolate Corporation:

We have examined the consolidated balance sheet of Hershey Chocolate Corporation (a Delaware corporation) and subsidiary company as of December 31, 1944, and the summaries of consolidated profit and loss and earned surplus for the year then ended, have reviewed the system of internal control and the accounting procedures of the companies and, without making a detailed audit of the transactions, have examined or tested accounting records of the companies and other supporting evidence, by methods and to the extent we deemed appropriate. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards applicable in the circumstances and included all procedures which we considered necessary. We were unable to obtain confirmation of certain receivables from United States Government departments and agencies, but we satisfied ourselves as to such receivables by means of other auditing procedures.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related summaries of profit and loss and earned surplus present fairly the position of Hershey Chocolate Corporation and subsidiary company at December 31, 1944 and the results of their operations for the year, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

New York, N. Y., February 21, 1945.
